WORK RULES/PROHIBITED CONDUCT

The discipline process addresses violations of Housing, departmental and campus policies. Discipline by nature is not intended to be punitive but is designed to teach appropriate behavior or to correct inappropriate workplace behavior. University Housing follows a progressive discipline process for any student employee misconduct or work violation. This means that, generally, discipline follows a series of progressive steps, starting with verbal warning, written warning, last chance warning or termination.

Below is a list of the work rules/prohibited conduct. Engaging in one or more of the following may result in disciplinary action ranging from a verbal warning to immediate discharge, depending upon the severity and/or frequency of the violation.

Departments may write policies for behaviors that are considered more common, and Divisional standards apply in all other situations.

A. Work Performance

1. Insubordination, including disobedience or failure or refusal to carry out assignments or instructions.
2. Loafing, loitering, sleeping or engaging in unauthorized personal business.
3. Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information or records.
4. Failure to provide accurate and complete information whenever such information is required by an authorized person.
5. Failure to comply with health, safety, and sanitation requirements, rules and regulations.
6. Negligence in performance of assigned duties, including poor quality or quantity of work.
